

~~THE NEW SCHOOL~~

THE COMMUNITY LEARNING CENTER

UNDER SYSTEMS PHILOSOPHY

When you walk in the building, there's a row of offices. In one are drug counselors. One if for social security. Another, family and child psychologists. Yet another has a doctor and nurse who do well-child exams ...

Schools are no longer in the "schooling business," but rather, in "human resource development."

Dr Shirley McCune
Bremerton Sun
October 14, 1989

(Dr McCune is now employed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in Washington State.)

